

Let's work together to develop the ACT Disability Health Strategy for the Canberra community

ACT Health invites community members with disability and carers of people with disability to help inform the development of the new ACT Disability Health Strategy.

The aim of the Disability Health Strategy is to ensure better health outcomes for people with disability, their families, and carers.

If you would like to be involved, you can express your interest to be a member of the steering committee or register as an ally of the project.

Applications close at 5pm on Friday, 25 February 2022.

To find out more, please call 5124 9355 or visit: health.act.gov.au/act-disability-health-strategy

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disability and people with disability from a Culturally and Linguistically Diverse background are encouraged to apply.
